1. Establishment of Trust. The Trustee has established the Trust Account, with Trustee serving as trustee.

2. Appointment of Trust; Deposits of Cash.

(a) The Client hereby appoints the Trustee as its agent and custodian to hold and disburse the Funds deposited with the Trust Account pursuant to the terms of this Trust Agreement in accordance with the terms hereof.

(b) Following the execution of this Trust Agreement, the Client will cause to be delivered to the Trustee from time to time any and all funds received from the purchasers (collectively the "Beneficiaries" and each a "Beneficiary") upon the execution and delivery of the Subscription Agreement (the "Trust Funds").

3. Deposit into the Trust Account. Rule 419 under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, (the "Securities Act") requires that the net offering proceeds, and all securities to be issued including those sold by a selling shareholder upon their sale (the "Deposited Funds" and "Deposited Securities," respectively) be promptly deposited by the Client into a trust or escrow account governed by an agreement which contains certain terms and provisions specified by Rule 419 of the Securities Act (the "Rule"). Therefore, the following shall apply to the Deposited Funds and the Deposited Securities:

(a) All offering proceeds shall be deposited promptly into the Trust Account.

- (b) Deposited proceeds shall be in the form of checks, drafts, or money orders payable to the order of the Trustee.
- (c) Deposited proceeds and interest or dividends thereon, if any, shall be held for the sole benefit of the Beneficiaries.
- (d) Deposited proceeds shall be invested at the discretion of the Trustee in one of the following:
  - (i) An obligation that constitutes a “deposit,” as that term is defined in Section 3(1) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act;
  - (ii) Securities of any open-end investment company registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 (the “Investment Company Act”) that holds itself out as a money market fund meeting the conditions of paragraph (d) of 17 CFR 270.2a-7 (Rule 2a-7) under the Investment Company Act; or
  - (iii) Securities that are direct obligations of, or obligations guaranteed as to principal or interest by, the United States.
- (e) Interest or dividends earned on the funds, if any, shall be held in the Trust Account until the funds are released in accordance with the provisions of Rule 419 under the Securities Act. If funds held in the Trust Account are released to a purchaser of the securities, the purchaser shall receive interest or dividends earned, if any, on such funds up to the date of release. If funds held in the Trust Account are released to the Client, interest or dividends earned on such funds up to the date of release may be released to the Client.
- (f) The Client may receive up to 10% of the proceeds remaining after payment of underwriting commissions, underwriting expenses and dealer allowances permitted by Rule 419(b)(2)(i) of the Securities Act exclusive of interest or dividends, as those proceeds are deposited into the Trust Account.

  - (iii) failure to complete the reconfirmation offering within 18 months of the date of effectiveness of the Registration Statement. In the event of termination, funds and securities shall be delivered as described herein.

- (h) All securities issued in connection with the offering, whether or not for cash consideration, and any other securities issued with respect to such securities, including securities issued with respect to stock splits, stock dividends, or similar rights, shall be deposited by the Client directly into the Trust Account promptly upon issuance. The identity of the Beneficiary shall be included on the stock certificates or other documents evidencing such securities. The securities so deposited shall be subject to Rule 15g-8 of the Exchange Act regarding restrictions on sales of, or offers to sell, securities deposited in the Trust Account.
